The President’s Letter

Hello Fun Bunch,

August was a busy month for our club, but many good things were accomplished. Dance lessons continued to have great support from our members. My sincere thanks to all of you wonderful people who come out to help beginners learn to shag. It’s an advantage for a beginner to be able to dance with someone who has experience.

From what I have heard, and the pictures I’ve seen on our website, everyone had a super time at the Frozen Fantasy party. I was out of town, but I was trilled to see the great response from our members. Cecila and Tom were great hosts. A special thanks goes to both of them, and to Marvin and Betsy as Co-Chairs of the party.

We are moving full steam ahead toward Fall SOS. Twister’s Shag Club has many new members this year that have never been to SOS. We need to prepare these folks by making sure they attend our SOS Kickoff Party on September 7 at the Havana Club. It’s always a party not to miss. Let’s make sure everyone attends.

TSC Members have succeeded again. You have already sold about 100 tickets for the big Fun Monday raffle. We still have about 40. Please plan to buy one before, or on meeting night. (We have to mail in the next day.) Even if you already bought one, get another! You can win cash prizes of $250, $500, $1000, $2000 or even $7500. So, please help us get this last batch of tickets sold. Then, I hope at least one of you wins a prize.

A great big “thanks” go to Frances and Sharon for all they did, and continue to do to make the Fall Cyclone Signup process such a success. Getting everyone signed up to work different spots and times is a challenge, and probably the most thankless job there is. But, working the Cyclone is absolute fun. Everyone enjoys it.

Your board is still trying very hard to come up with different ways to make our club even better than it is… if that is possible. You know the old saying; “There is always room for improvement.” Help us help you. See you on the dance floor!

Kathy
Five O’clock Means Party Time At SOS

You’ll be on time for several significant events at SOS if you can just remember the 5:00pm. Here’s a preview of what’s in store! Events with dates and times shown in bold are hosted by our club.

Sat 9/15 at 5pm: TSC Long Island Iced Tea Party in the back room at Fat Harolds. Free for members, and only $10 for guests. There will be free food for our party, too, so don’t show up late.

Sun 9/16 from Noon-5pm: Fun Sunday hosted by SOS. The Band Of Oz and the Attractions Band will play.

Mon 9/17 from Noon-5pm. Fun Monday hosted by SOS. Delbert McClinton, the Coastline Band and Craig Woolard Band will play.

Mon 9/17 from 5-9pm. DJ Jam at the O.D Café featuring Mike Rink, Wilkie Whaley and Radio Rich (from PA). This event was created, in part, to draw folks from the Pittsburgh Area Jitterbug Club. But TSC members are invited. Come meet some of the folks that come to our Fall Cyclone party every year. (They host a fun party in PA, too.) Snacks will be served and it will be fun.

Wed 9/19 at 5pm: Beer, Wine and Shooter Party in Ducks Too. Free for members, and only $10 for guests. Mike Rink and Eddie Teeter will DJ. There will be free munchies and more just for us!

Thurs 9/20: Captain’s Choice golf outing for men and women, members and guests. Location and price to be announced. Join us!

Sat 9/22 at 5pm: TSC Long Island Iced Tea Party at the O.D. Beach Club. Free for members, and only $10 for guests. This is always our biggest party at the beach. There will plenty of great food, too. DJs will be Farrell Watts until 9, then Wilkie Whaley.

Sun 9/23 at 8pm: The Famous Bob Rea “I’m Not Leaving SOS And You Can’t Make Me” Party at Fat Harolds. If you are still at the beach, don’t miss this event. We expect a big crowd this time.

September Shag Club Meeting

Our September meeting will be at Fat Boys on Tuesday, September 4th. Music will start around 7pm. The meeting will be at 8pm, and we’ll have more music and dancing afterwards.

The $5.99 all-you-can-eat buffet is great. Take advantage of this offer. Enjoying their good food helps support the facility. And, it shows we appreciate having a great place to teach lessons, have meetings, etc. So, please eat if you can. You won’t regret it!

Finally, Kathy Cavin won $103 last month in the TSC Treasure Chest Drawing. You could be a big winner this month if you are there and your name is drawn. We hope to see you on Tuesday!

SOS Kickoff Party

Don’t miss the food, the fun, and the fellowship on Friday night, September 7 at the Havana Social Club. Our SOS Kickoff Parties are always well attended, and this one could be bigger than ever.

Please invite all your friends and fellow shaggers to join us, too! If you help promote this event it can easily be bigger and better.

The DJ for the evening will be Clyde Waller. He’ll be spinning all the best music. Cost will be a mere $5 at the door. (The extra $2 will help pay for all the great food you will enjoy that night).

Plan to have a lot of fun. More details to be announced soon.

Attention Social Committee Members: The party Chairperson is Teresa Flowers (tflowers@carolinatruckexperts.com or 704-895-4765). The following members are assigned to help at this party:

Membership Information

Lynn Bullard, Donna Edwards, Bill Hackney, Michelle Halverson, Tami Middleton, Gene Sigmon and Donna Smith have submitted applications to join TSC. Each will need to be at our meeting to be voted on. Come out and meet these folks!

Havana’s DJ Schedule

Sept 07: Pre-SOS Party with DJ Clyde Waller
Sept 14: Roger Holcomb
Sept 21: NO SHAG DJ DUE TO FALL SOS
Sept 28: Eddie Teeter

Fall Cyclone 17 Update

As we go to press (August 27) we have sold well over 500 tickets to our 17th Annual Fall Cyclone. That’s a great start!

Anyone wanting up-to-date, detailed information about our party should visit our web site, www.goshagging.com. It even includes the number of rooms available at each participating motel.

TSC members, friends and guests need to get their tickets as soon as possible. This is one of the most anticipated events in the shag world, and you do not want to miss out on being there. We’ve got plenty of extra flyers. So, if you are going to another shag club’s party or beach night, please take some to share. Thanks!

Our biggest remaining promotions for the Cyclone will come during Fall SOS. We’ve got an ad in the Carefree Times. We’ll have radio ads running on 94.9FM The Surf. But we need you to help make sure flyers are distributed to everyone at the beach. When you go in the various lounges, make sure our Fall Cyclone Flyers are out in open view. Many times flyers from all the different clubs and all the different parties get mixed up. So, if you don’t see Cyclone flyers, please take a moment to straighten the pile and put ours in clear view. Finally, Charles Munday has asked that some folks please take Cyclone flyers to pass out in the crowd during Fun Monday at SOS. If you can help, please let us know.

TSC At Denver Days Festival

“Denver Days, Inc. is a private, non-profit organization of community leaders and business owners who want to showcase the community so that people can see the great things the eastern region of Lincoln County has to offer!

The purpose of the festival is to provide a fun, family oriented event that the entire community can enjoy, to enhance civic pride in the Denver area, and to raise funds to be used for recreational facilities and additional resources for the community.

Some of the profits from the Denver Days Fall Festival are immediately put back into the community through groups such as the local high school sports boosters. The remaining profits are held in the non-profit Denver Days, Inc. escrow account with the hope of someday developing a park where the community can continue to have events like the Denver Days Fall Festival.”

The event is Wednesday through Saturday, with bands playing on the last two nights. On Friday, the band will be our friends the Fantastic Shakers. They will start at 8pm. We’ve been asked to dance and demonstrate the shag during their time on stage.

Denver Days will help us promote our shag club and attract some new people to our dance. So, we get to have fun, perpetuate our dance, and help our club prosper, too.

We’ll have more details, soon. But you can also check out the September issue of Lake Norman Magazine, and other local publications for more details about the event.

Club members are asked to wear their red T-Shirts, or their red or white dress shirts to the event. Meet us up near the stage by 8pm, or as soon as possible. Parking is rather expensive ($10 per vehicle) so carpooling is encouraged, at least when you get close to the event. Once the concert starts winding down, we can all head over to Havana for some more fun. See you there!
Do You Have Youth And Skill, Or…?
Submitted By Margaret Hutson

A wealthy lady decides to go on a photo safari in Africa, taking her faithful aged poodle named Cuddles along for the company. One day the poodle starts chasing butterflies and before long, Cuddles discovers that he’s lost. Wandering about, he notices a leopard heading rapidly in his direction with the intention of having lunch.

The old poodle thinks, “Oh, oh! I’m in deep doo-doo now!” Noticing some bones on the ground close by, he immediately settles down to chew on the bones with his back to the approaching cat. Just as the leopard is about to leap the old poodle exclaims loudly, “Boy, that was one delicious leopard! I wonder if there are any more around here?”

Hearing this, the young leopard halts his attack in mid-strike. A look of terror comes over him. “Whew!”, thinks the leopard, “That was close! That old poodle nearly had me!”

A monkey who had been watching the whole scene from a nearby tree, figures he can put this knowledge to good use and trade it for protection from the leopard. So off he goes, but the old poodle sees him heading after the leopard with great speed, and figures that something must be up. The monkey soon catches up with the leopard, spills the beans and strikes a deal for himself.

The young leopard is furious at being made a fool of and says, “Here, monkey, hop on my back and see what’s going to happen to that conniving canine!” The old poodle sees the leopard coming with the monkey on his back and thinks, “What am I going to do now?” Instead of running, the dog sits down with his back to his attackers, pretending he hasn’t seen them yet, and just when they get close enough to hear, the old poodle says, “Where’s that damn monkey? I sent him off an hour ago to bring me another leopard!”

The moral of this story is, “Don’t mess with old farts. Age and treachery will always overcome youth and skill! Bullshit and brilliance only come with age and experience.”

All About The Pivot
By Frances Smith and Iris Binder

Just in case you missed the recent shag lesson given by Holly and Jason Cagle at Fat Boys, we took some notes for you.

The next time we have guest instructors, maybe you can help out!

Improving the Pivot

• Posture is important. Stand upright, head over shoulders, shoulder over hips, hips over feet.

• On step “one”, don’t lean forward and look down as if you were stepping out in the Lindy. Stay up.

• Dig step guys. Don’t step forward. Step back with your right foot crossed close behind your left.

• Where your eyes are looking, your body will follow so… pick out an imaginary spot on your partner’s left shoulder, and immediately turn your head to the right and keep your gaze on that spot while executing the turn.

• Men, let her come to you. Bring your hand straight back to left holster position and lock it in.

• Don’t worry about how far around you get on step “one”. That’s an easy fix on the remaining steps.

• Hold your pivot box steady and allow some room to move and breathe. Men, don’t pull her in too tightly.

• Ladies place your hand at a comfortable position on his right arm or shoulder, not draped around his neck. Gentlemen, place your hand at her waist or center of back.

• Most mistakes happen on the first step. So fix that one and your whole pivot will improve.

Frozen Fantasy Party

By Betsy Chapman

The TSC Frozen Fantasy Party was really “cool” with over 72 attendees. Partygoers enjoyed a relaxing Lake Norman setting; the perfect place to chill on a warm summer day. A very special thanks goes out to Celia and Mike for sharing their beautiful home, and for being such wonderful hosts.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the water, music, food, and “fantasy” entries along with some lively conversation. In fact, many guests did not want to leave, especially after the party moved “off shore” atop Celia and Mike’s magnificent boat dock.

The “Frozen Fantasy” judges recognized the huge responsibility associated with their appointment to the “Bar.” They took to their task with great enthusiasm and careful attention to detail (so much, in fact, that several entries were “judged” a second and third time). As the sampling of entries progressed, it was evident the responsibilities of decision-making were taking a heavy toll on each judge. Undaunted, the judges pressed on to determine the following “Frozen Fantasy” winners:

- Best Overall: Sharon Carter’s Pina Colada Passion
- Best Frozen Drink: Ramona Hawley’s Sum Dum Rum Delight
- Best Cake: Cindy Rea’s Orange Rum Cake
- Best Jell-O Shooter: Peggy Cavin’s Purple Passion
- Best Other Dessert: Gwen Weddington’s Frozen Margarita Dessert

Thanks to all the judges for making the “Frozen Fantasy” contest so much fun.

I would like to thank all the committee members who helped put on this event. They demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to their assigned tasks and then looked for ways to provide extra help. It is a pleasure to “work” when everyone pitches in as they did.

Note: There have been numerous requests for the recipes for all the contest entries. Please, if you submitted an entry to the contest, send the recipe in for publication in the Twisters Newsletter. Those “fantasies” are too good to go unshared!
Frozen Fantasy 2007

By Peggy Cavin

I do not know any word in the English language that could best describe our Frozen Fantasy, but I know that it is one of our best parties of the whole year. We had over 70 people to attend this one. If you were one of them, you were not disappointed in anything that went on that day. It seemed like it was nearly 100 degrees when we got there around 1 o’clock. The host, hostess, and party chairs were finishing up on last minute details. The sun was beating down on everyone and we thought it was almost entirely too hot to party. But we were wrong!

As I helped Celia hang pint-size baggies of water from the upper deck, I didn’t want to appear stupid and ask, “What the heck are we doing?” But, secretly, I wondered. I found out that this little ritual was supposed to keep the flies from carrying off our food. Flies gravitate toward the water and away from food. Yea, right. Someone in this crowd must be stupid to think I’m falling for that one. Thank goodness I wasn’t the only one who asked that question before the night ended. But, hey it worked! Right?

Bill Edwards played some great music, and Fat Boys catered some terrific food. We also had a game room just inside that had a pool table, shuffleboard, and a Pac Man video game. There was even a volleyball net set up outside for the few brave ones among us.

Our Frozen Fantasy contest went off without a hitch. If the flies had actually carried us off, we wouldn’t have noticed. Even the heat was bearable at that point… or was it just that we didn’t notice or care? We were all having too much fun!

It was hard to just watch the judges partake of the entries. But we all knew that we would get a turn after the judges. As soon as the judges retired to an office inside the house to make their selections, we all scrambled to the table to sample the goodies.

I don’t know which is more fun… making an entry, judging the entries or just enjoying tasting all of them.

The party lasted until midnight with, of course, Bob Rea being the last to leave. He wanted to make sure everyone had a good time. Bob is always our “second-in-command host” everywhere we go.

If you didn’t come to this party, you missed it folks. And like Las Vegas, most of what happens at the Fantasy party, stays there. Of course, there are some photos on our web site! Check them out.

Thanks to our gracious hosts Celia Hunter and Mike Turbeville, and chairs Marvin and Betsy Chapman for all their hard work. I think you each deserve an A++ for this one.

As we got in our cars to go home, I heard Celia say that she’d host it again next year. I’d vote for that and I’m sure I can get a second!

The Frozen Fantasy Party

By Ramona Hawley

What a fun party. It was hot, but no one seemed to mind. The music was great, the food was great, and the company just could not be beat. Many thanks to Celia and Mike for hosting our party.

The first Twisters party I ever attended was the Frozen Fantasy party three years ago. Being a new member, I didn’t know what to expect. But I quickly found out that “the Fun Bunch” was really fun. I was asked to be a judge and it took me three days to come back to the land of the living.

After I recovered I decided that I would concoct one of those frozen delights and never be a judge again. It is unbelievable that I have won first place the last two years, and you can bet I will be trying for win number three next year.

Recipe: Start with 1 package of Crystal Light Strawberry Daiquiri mix, add 1-3/4 cups of cold water and shake well to mix. Now add 1-3/4 cups each of Pineapple Juice, Ocean Spray Cranberry Juice and rum. (Then slosh in just a bit more rum.) Shake well and freeze. I like to put the frozen slush in a blender and serve in a Martini glass along with a straw for sipping.
Pina Colada Passion Dessert
Created by Sharon Carter

What a fun time we had at this get-together. However, it is not a smart idea to put a frozen dessert into a hot cooler that was stored in an extremely hot garage. Nonetheless, with encouragement from my dear friend Dean, I entered my dessert in the contest. The sides were falling off and my delicate Butter Cream Stars was slowly melting off the sides and top. Still, it was a big hit and all the judges enjoyed it. But if you’re going to make it, remember my tip about the heat. Enjoy yourself and have a blast.

Prepare dessert in stages as listed below. Read through the recipe to be familiar with ingredients and the prep time needed to make your Frozen Fantasy Dessert.

Crust

2 cups Honey Maid Graham Cracker Crumbs
¼ cup sugar, divided
1/3 cup unsalted butter, melted
¼ cup Original Bailey’s Irish Cream
Mix crumbs, ¼ cup sugar with the butter and Bailey’s Cream; press firmly onto bottom of 12 inch spring-form pan or 13x9-inch dish. Freeze at least 30 minutes or over night if needed.

Please note crumbs should adhere together when pressed between fingers. If too dry/crumbly add more liquid in small amounts.

Filling

After set – spread over graham cracker crust
2 packages (4 oz) French Vanilla Pudding
1 ½ cups cold milk
½ cup Original Bailey’s Irish Cream
[1 cup Cool Whip Whipped Topping thawed]
Gently mix first three ingredients together at low speed. Cover and let set in refrigerator until firm (thick pudding consistency). Fold in 1 cup whipped topping after set.

Top over pudding in single layer
16 oz Fresh Pineapple cut into thin slices
Cover fruit faintly with liquor and soak at least 12 hours in combination of Vodkas to add flavor of choice (straight, coconut, pineapple etc.)

Dollop over fruit
12 oz coarsely chopped walnuts
¼ cup Honey
2 tablespoons Original Bailey’s Irish Cream
Mix ingredients refrigerate at least 4 hours

Butter Cream Icing

Use to decorate dessert to your liking (pipe, spread over filling)
½ cup solid shortening (Crisco is best)
½ cup butter (unsalted butter)
1 teaspoon Vodka (may be flavored)
4 cups sifted confectioner’s sugar (approx. 1 lb.)
2 tablespoons Coconut flavored Rum
1 cup Cool Whip Whipped Topping

In large bowl, cream shortening and butter with electric mixer. Add Vodka. Gradually add sugar, one cup at a time, beating well on low speed. Scrape sides and bottom of bowl often. When all sugar has been mixed in, icing will appear dry. Add Coconut flavored Rum and beat at medium speed until light and fluffy. Fold in 1 cup Cool Whip Whipped topping. For best results, keep icing bowl in refrigerator until ready for use. Icing should be piped onto dessert with large flower or star tip of your choice or spread in a swirling motion. Freeze dessert at least three hours prior to serving. Top with Rum Flavored Maraschino Cherries, Serve and Enjoy!

Garnish

Position onto Butter Cream Icing to your desire
12 oz jar Maraschino Cherries with stems (thoroughly drained)
Make sure to soak in Coconut Rum for at least 12 hours before using as a garnish.
Do you have trouble sleeping?

This problem affects millions of people every night. There are times when I wish I worked night shift. I’m always tired and can’t wait to go to sleep… and then I get into bed and I am wide awake! So out comes the book or turn the TV on. Then there are times when I get to sleep only to wake up about 2 or 3 hours later. That is when I get up early and go on into work. I get a lot done there, but about 1 or 2 pm I start dragging! All I want to do then is sleep. By that time I don’t know whether to… (in Dolly Parton’s words) “wind my butt or scratch my watch”!

Good sleep is so important to our health… just as much as diet and exercise are.

What causes sleeplessness or interrupted sleep?

- stress at home
- stress at work
- no exercise
- worry
- money
- children
- worry over when you are going to the beach next… well maybe not!
- traveling

Here are some ways to improve your sleep:

- Don’t consume any caffeine after 2 or 3 pm
- Don’t change your sleep times, like sleeping late on weekends
- Don’t eat to much before going to bed
- Eliminate too much stimulation before bedtime… let me make myself clear on this one… bright lights, TVs on, uncomfortable bedding or clothing, noisy clocks or people, etc.
- If you haven’t fallen asleep in a small amount of time, get out of bed and do something until you get sleepy… have you ever found yourself closing your eyes so tight they hurt while trying to fall asleep?
- If all this fails, talk to your doctor. Sometimes it just takes a small amount of medicine to get back into a routine. Sleeping pills aren’t meant to be taken forever. They are for getting you past a hard time or back into a routine again.

You can always keep a sleep diary to see what you are doing right before you go to bed. This can help track what is causing you to either not go to sleep or to wake you up in the middle of the night.

Remember, the week of SOS doesn’t count!

I know I usually talk about Geoff (Mr. Pitiful… they wrote this song about him), but I think I’ll let him sleep this one out!

So here’s to our health and always remember… laughter is the best medicine!

Bless our hearts,
Queenie

Dancing in Oregon
By Janice Musgrove

I’m sorry we missed the first signup meeting for the Fall Cyclone. I couldn't believe we would have been second! But, we'll be at the party and can't wait to see all of you. We have been doing lots of traveling this year. The first of August we were visiting friends in Seattle and traveling with them through Oregon. Since this was a state that none of us had visited, we had lots to see. My advice is go visit in August when there is great weather there, but the weather is hot and uncomfortable here.

We tried to represent our area of the country well. You wouldn't believe the number of times people asked me questions just to hear me talk "southern"! On our first day south of Portland we stopped at a winery. It just happened to be their anniversary celebration. We enjoyed the wine tasting but the best part was listening to the band and having a chance to shag! They weren't playing real shag music but the beat was right and we don't turn down a chance to show off our favorite dance. We tried to do you proud.

Now, it’s just a few weeks until Fall SOS! We hope all of you will be there at some point during the week. We miss you!

If your name is shown here, we need an article from you next month. The deadline is Sept 25. (Tuesday after SOS.)
